Treasurer's Report

7.16pm Jo Rowell

(Please see Appendix 2)

Income from Mothers Day Stall $600, Fun Run $11700, Music Committee had income from Entertainment Books. Takings from hall hire are on track for the year. It was questioned who looked after the tennis court hire. OSHC had $3700 expenses for new building and $3000 garden equipment – Jo questioned what these were for. So far there has been $11000 in parent contributions, last year the total was $19000. Contribution no longer goes into a building fund - Jo will verify if parents can claim a tax deduction. The school accounts for outstanding money will go out to parents soon. Science committee is negative – they have spent money but have no income.

Tuckshop

7.26pm

Maryanne Foreman

Maryanne will be banking the takings from the Cookie Dough Fundraiser tomorrow $2648. $1100 profit will be used to fix the shutters this week. Cookie Dough delivery is next Wednesday. Dana has donated a rice cooker. We have changed pie brands to Four and Twenty – Traveller Pies and Sausage Rolls. Derek has painted the tuckshop, Amanda Hawkeswell to paint decorations.

Safety

7.31pm

Helen Finlay

Police have issued several parking tickets in Beanland St. Suggested to send notes to go home to Prep parents re parking in Beanland St. It was requested that teachers park outside of streets immediately surrounding the school – Angela said she would ask but has no jurisdiction. Lines will be painted at the crossing and surrounds over the holidays. It was noted that the traffic lights were not beeping for the walk signal. Nicole will consult police about strategies to improve parking around school.

Sport Committee

7.42pm

Karen Hook

Sports Committee Meeting is on Wednesday night, Maryanne requested that Chris take over the sports uniforms. Sports socks will be discussed.

Fundraising

7.43pm

Niki Spresser

Profit from Disco is approx $2700. Jo will bank $4226.85. Income from Photos $250, expecting a profit of $220. It was agreed that future discos would not sell sherbet sticks due to the mess. It was commented that some children did not attend as the parents thought it would be too scary for them. As yet no date has been set for the next disco. More small change would be needed for the next disco.

General Business

7.55pm

Various

Karen Hook

During the recent heavy rain the hall leaked. Derek has used silicone to fix this. New carpet was sticking out from under the door, Derek has cut this back. The back door of the hall is out of alignment and needs a carpenter to rehang – will be done on Wednesday. One of the dads at the disco has offered to help in the future – Brent Phillips (Carpenter).
It was suggested that we have working bees – this was turned down due to the lack of volunteers and insurance issues.
Hall – electrician fixed fire damage in the electricity box $610 requested P&C pay – P&C approved.

Nicole O'Brien

QCPCA – Risk Management Strategy for P&C – P&C Approved, copy to be brought to next meeting for perusal.

OSHC – Health Policy - P&C Approved, copy to be brought to next meeting for perusal.

Last meeting it was discussed that Mt Ommaney News has offered to deliver book lists for next year – Kerrie to follow up. It was questioned whether the delivery would be before the end of the school year.

It was requested that a note be included in the newsletter advising that parking is available at the OSCH building.

Jo acknowledged the work that Nicole O'Brien has done on the Health Policy.

Fundraising/Fete 8.15pm Various
Karen presented Advance Photographers Fundraiser – Family Portraits $10/$15/$20 Packages. Photos would be taken in the hall on a weekend. It was suggested to do this after the September holidays. Niki will follow up for the next meeting.

Niki advised the ride contacts we used for the last fete offered the best prices. Need to set a date for next year. Start of next year we do a donation drive. It is envisioned that each student will be involved in presentations/displays at the fete and that the teachers will start planning for class involvement for the fete early next year. Advertising for the fete will involve ads in local papers and letter box drops.

Music Trivia Night is this Friday night.
